

Gazco Logic2 Electric Arts, Highlight Polished front and Polished Steel frame, White and Clear Stone fuel effect

Inspiration from the Art Deco era

Gazco Logic2 Electric Arts fire combines the latest, modern technology with classic styling. A thermostatic programmable remote control, allows you to choose between two heat output levels, three different flame visuals (amber, blue or mixed) or turn off the heat and enjoy the stunning flicker of Gazco's unique flame-effect technology.

The Logic2 Electric fire has three interchangeable fuel beds: log effect, white and clear stones or grey pebbles. Also available in two different frames, Matt Black or Polished Steel, making the fire very versatile and perfect for any room.

An optional spacer frame is available for wall mounting, this makes for an easy install.
